Precious Hubby dear: —

In yesterday's letter you wrote of that case for Mr. Stevens brother. Honey, dear, I sure do hope you make that "go on it. Won't that be wonderful? You sure are doing wonderfully and lord! Honey, how I long to be with you. I'll start, please God, 2 weeks from to-day. When I come down, look, I am going to spend the entire day with you — every day —. I'm going to be with you when you are — the office, and when you go to court, I'm going there, too, so I am just dying to see my precious hubby dear, try a case.

Mom is feeling better. Her heart is compensating nicely. The doctor, however, had to give her something to produce sleep. I think if only that sleeplessness could be overcome Mom would pick up wonderfully well. Doctor says she is going along nicely. Meant to tell you, the same day I wrote you about Mom's diet, they gave her solid food. Cereals, broths, chicken etc. I brought up some ice cream last night and Mom sure enjoyed it. I'll bring her some again this afternoon.

We hope the weather continues to keep nice until I come down, — or perhaps you look me. I know just how you feel, precious as the weather is simply wonderful, north, too. Just 2 weeks & 2 days more look, and I shall be in your arms, — and are you going to look me if the weather does not happen to be nice? You know I am a regular hoodoo when it comes to weather — and so I want to make sure if you will come me, if the weather does not happen to be nice

Just rec'd your Tuesday letter. From your letter honey, it sounds wonderful. 3 rooms & a bath and all those improvements! And for $10! Why, honey, that sure is fine! As to Aunt L. I guess I can manage alright as we will be separated and I need not come too much in contact with her — I don't think now that I should care to very much. Now, I am just so happy that as soon as I can I am going to run up & tell mom. So lovey, our home is going to be started! I am so happy about the baths. I am sure it is going to look wonderful. Now, as long as they are going to do the place over, see to it that they chose pretty paper and pretty colors for the painting. Bath Uncle Morris & Mr. Solomon are brecks! What about that proposition concerning the drug store?

With all my love kisses & love from mom

I'll close

Lovingly
Frances

How is your "tummy?" Yes hope alright.
